Dear ASPAC Delegates,

We are writing this statement letter to inform you that the special line which was previously arranged to be provided at the airport has been cancelled by the airport authority.

We apologize for any inconvenience caused and the COC team has made every effort to ensure the special line could still be provided at the airport. However, our efforts were unsuccessful.

Once again, we apologize for the inconvenience that all ASPAC delegates may experience. Please be advised that the special line is no longer available.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
